

Just Roots December Box!

THE WHAT: Do you fret about where to get the best, local veggies after the standard farm season comes to an end? We do too! So, we've been busy planting crops in our hoop houses, to extend our season as long as possible! This season, we are offering a one-time December pick up! Come see the farm in December and pick up a box of Just Roots produce!

Each share will be a bountiful bushel of produce with potatoes, sweet potatoes, winter squash, leeks, garlic, mixed roots, winter radishes, and lots of cooking and salad greens. There will even be some unexpected treats, like dried herbs, popcorn, hot peppers and dried flowers to round out the share. The share will come pre-boxed by your farmers and ready for pick up. In addition to the share, recipes and a winter veggie storage guide will be provided to you. Plus, we will have a mini-market at the farm, with produce, soup, meat, hot-off-the-grill Sage Farm breakfast sandwiches and some other products for sale, and a fire to keep us all toasty! While these market goods will be available as supply lasts on the pick-up day, you can reserve some of the limited add-ons today by selecting them below and including them in your payment.

Celebrate winter with Just Roots and at the farm with one final, festive pick up before the winter truly sets in!
